

Brownell-Talbot presents
2017 Omaha Chess Camp

At Brownell-Talbot School, 400 North Happy Hollow Blvd, Omaha

omahachesscamp.com

June 12 – 16, 2017

For students entering grades 3-12, who are interested in improving their chess play, getting better prepared for tournaments, and who want to increase their appreciation for the magic of the game.

Cost of the camp: $200.00 if paid by May 31, 2017. $225 after May 31, 2017.

Enrollment in the camp is limited. Prior to being accepted to the camp, some students may be required to have an individual session with John Hartmann to determine suitability and class placement.

Instruction will be from 9:00 am – 4:00 pm with a lunch / recess hour at noon. Students should bring lunch. Students may be dropped off at Brownell-Talbot as early as 8:00 am and picked up as late as 4:30 pm. Chess practice will be available during this time.

Students will study middle game tactics, positional themes, checkmates, opening ideas and endgame techniques. Students will also learn chess notation, play notated games and have these games analyzed. A tournament will be held on Friday.

About the instructors: John Hartmann is a national chess columnist, president of the Nebraska State Chess Association, and the Brownell-Talbot chess coach. Joe Knapp is a past Nebraska State Champion. Mansur Eshragh is an expert level player and long time chess instructor. Questions: John Hartmann <omahachesscamp@gmail.com>
